About Youth Services

The Youth Services program engages eligible young people between the ages of 18 and 24 who have graduated or dropped out of high school and face barriers to employment (homelessness, poverty, disabilities, etc.).

The program helps young adults bridge the gaps by providing valuable education, training, counseling and work-based learning opportunities to achieve success.

Training Programs

The youth program helps prepare young adults for success in the workplace through the following:

- Opportunities to obtain a GED or high school diploma
- Ability to gain industry recognized certifications
- Obtain employment or work-based learning experiences
- Explore essential hard and soft skills
- Tutoring support

Training Locations

Youth services are located at the following training sites:
